Hi all,

Sadly I have to report that the world has just lost a great Hashman. Charlie "Dynamite" Chandran died in a tragic road accident early on Friday morning in Kuala Lumpur. His funeral took place last night. Please remember him in your prayers. May he rest in peace.

Please inform any hash people you know.

On! On! forever

Hi, MM,

Charlie Chandran's unfortunate demise, as I am given to understand, occurred about 3.30 am last Friday morning, October 25, when he was attempting to circumnavigate an elevated traffic circle in KL while driving a recently acquired, reconditioned, 1967 topless ex-military Land Rover which lacked a safety belt. He was apparently flung out of the vehicle when it struck the outer wall of the circle, and died instantly of severe head injuries when he came to rest on the lower roadway. Apparently, there were no witnesses.

He was cremated according to Hindu rites that same afternoon.

RIP, Charlie.

Bill.

Definitely a great loss. I met him in 1992 at my first IH....such a fantastic guy.

We send our sincerest condolences.....

Hardy Boy,

Thank you for advising us for the sad news.

Our sincere condolences to yourself and the other members of the RSC.

His dynamic presence as the MC for Goa 2002 definitely contributed to the success of the event.

Sadly missed.

If you (or RSC) are establishing a memorial fund, please advise us accordingly.

We'll lift our hash mugs in his memory

Regards

Lofty and Yoadrian
